Laramie County Events announces Sportsman's Expo

Adventure awaits at the Event Center at Archer.

CHEYENNE, WY— March 16, 2022 — The Laramie County Events department is excited to host a weekend full of vendors, demonstrations, and equipment for the outdoor enthusiast. The second annual Laramie County Sportsman's Expo presented by Bish's RV will take place Friday April 1 through Sunday, April 3, 2022, at the Event Center at Archer.

The Laramie County Sportsman's Expo presented by Bish's RV will host a wide range of businesses showcasing products and services aimed toward the most experienced outdoorsman to those new to the trail. Fisherman, hunters, avid hikers, occasional campers, and day-packers will all find a product or service suited to their next adventure. The University of Wyoming Extension office will have experts on site with interactive educational stations and a hands-on kids zone with an array of activities. JAX Outdoor Gear will host an "Adventure Package" giveaway for all attendees to enter for their chance at a grill and more valued at $1,000! The event is free and open to the public with food and drink available for purchase from Uncle Fred's Catering. Your next adventure awaits at the Laramie County Sportsman's Expo presented by Bish's RV.
